SPECIAL NEEDS
Southern Wesleyan University embraces all the diversities of our student body, including physical disability. If you have a physical condition that might limit your mobility or accessibility to our residence facilities, please call Martha Mishoe, 800-282-8798 ext. 5337, SWU's Special Services Coordinator. She will authorize the necessary arrangements to accommodate your physical needs with the housing staff.
VACATION HOUSING
Please note that all SWU housing will close during Christmas, Spring and Summer breaks. Additionally SWU does not provide food services during Fall, Thanksgiving, Christmas, Spring, Easter and Summer breaks.
SOUTHERN WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY HOUSING POLICY
All single students enrolled for twelve credit hours or more and who are under the age of 23 on the day of registration for any semester are required to live in university student housing and shall participate in the university board plan for the duration of that semester.
The only exceptions to this is one of the following reasons:
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. The student is married</li> <li>2. The student is living at the home of their parent or legal guardian.</li> <li>3. The student has completed 8 full-time, post high school college semesters.</li> </ol>
If one of these exceptions applies to you the submission of an off-campus verification form is required. This form can be found and submitted on MySWU.
Maximum institutional financial aid will be applied only to direct university cost and will not be applied to off-campus costs. Exceptions to university housing policy will be considered only for extreme circumstances and must be requested in writing to the Housing Office in advance. For additional information about SWU's housing policy, please contact the Housing Office at (864) 644-5143 or check the website at www.swu.edu for the current edition of the Student Handbook.
